

The Forgetful Lady-in-Waiting

The lady-in-waiting has put St Edward's Crown, the crown used during the Coronation, in a safe place. The Queen has decided she wishes to wear this crown as part of her Jubilee celebrations. Unfortunately the lady-in-waiting has been taken ill and forgotten where she placed it. Thankfully she left a number of clues to help remind her but needs your assistance in solving them. Are you up to the challenge?

Instructions

This Trail is designed to be completed at any time from the comfort of your chair. Please feel free to make use of any resources available to you to solve the clues.

Solving the Trail

One of the locations on the map on the back page matches the place where the forgetful lady-in-waiting left St Edward's Crown. To find out which one you will need to solve the clues in the Trail. When you find the answer to each clue, identify the corresponding location on the back page and cross it off. When you have solved all the clues one location on the map will remain – this is where the crown was left. Please see below for details of how to enter the competition.

COMPETITION

Please visit www.treasuretrails.co.uk and select the Diamond Jubilee Trail link from the homepage. Follow the instructions on how to submit your answer. If you are correct you will automatically be entered into the competition to win a Treasure Trails Jubilee Goody Bag, including a fleece and a Personalised Trail. Only one entry per person please. Entries close on the last day of the UK Diamond Jubilee Tour – 25th July 2012. The judge's decision is final

Many congratulations, Your Majesty, on the occasion of your Diamond Jubilee.

Clue 20

Each year Her Majesty connects with the entire Commonwealth through her Christmas address. In 2010 this came from a particular palace for the first time - but which one? Rearrange the letters to reveal your next empty location.

Did ye know?

The Queen is patron to over 600 charities. These range from well-known charities such as the British Red Cross to new, smaller charities like Kids Company, to regiments in the armed forces.

Clue 21

How tall, in inches, is the Queen? If 1=A and 9=I decode your answer to reveal the initials of another fruitless location.

Start here

This is a virtual Trail about the reign of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II. The Trail can be completed anywhere and at any time.

Have fun!

About this Trail

This Trail includes clues on the Coronation, the palaces and castles, the Royal Tours, the Diamond Jubilee celebrations and much more! Some of these clues may be general knowledge, some may require a little bit of research!

Feel free to use any resources you like in order to solve the clues.

There is also a puzzle on page 7 (just for fun!).

Don't forget to submit your answer (see opposite page for details).

Clue 22

Being called an award is a bit of a misnomer as this title is conferred by the Queen, by Royal Charter. Recipients wear the following badge - the youth organisation they belong to shares a name with another location to discount.

Did ye see?

Did ye know?

So, you think you are better off now than in 1952? Based on an average weekly salary you could buy 300 loaves of bread in 1952 but only 292 in 2012. However, in 1952 the average salary could only buy you 102 pints of beer versus 170 pints in 2012!

Clue 01

The then Princess Elizabeth was not in the UK when she received news of her father's death. Cross off the location that shares a name with the country from where she returned as Queen.

Did ye know?

Queen Elizabeth II became the 40th monarch since William the Conqueror obtained the crown of England. Should her Majesty reign until Sept 11th 2015 she will overtake the record held by her great-great-grandmother Queen Victoria.

Clue 02

The Coronation was conducted by the Archbishop of Canterbury. Identify his surname and discount a matching location.

Clue 23

The Queen and The Duke of Edinburgh will celebrate 65 years of marriage this year. But at which college did they first meet? Eliminate a matching place off your map.

Did ye know?

In an average year, the Queen will host more than 50,000 people at banquets, lunches, dinners, receptions and garden parties at Buckingham Palace and more than 8,000 people at garden parties and investitures at Holyroodhouse, during Holyrood Week.

Clue 24

In the National Anthem if 1,4 equals 'gracious' and 4,3 equals 'victorious' then 6,1 forms part of your final location to discount.

Clue 03

Clothes rationing had thankfully ended a few years before the Coronation. But who was the Coronation gown commissioned from? Their surname matches another location to discount.

Did ye know?

There was a shortage of professional coachmen to help transport dignitaries to Westminster Abbey in horse-drawn carriages. Millionaire businessmen and country squires offered their services dressing up as Buckingham Palace servants to help take people to the Coronation ceremony.

Clue 04

Following the Coronation the newly crowned Queen Elizabeth II reviewed the fleet. But where? Once you have solved this eliminate the location on the map that shares the name.

Did ye know?

The Queen launched the British Monarchy's official website in 1997. In 2007 the official British Monarchy YouTube channel was unveiled, swiftly followed by a Royal Twitter site (2009), Flickr page (2010) and Facebook page (also 2010).

Treasure Found

Congratulations!

You have reached the end of the Trail and should now be able to identify where the lady-in-waiting put the crown for safe keeping!

We hope you have enjoyed this virtual Treasure Trail - don't forget to submit your answer through our website. Whilst you are there, why not have a look at our great outdoor Trails available throughout the country?

Clue 05

Identify the royal residence in the following image and eliminate a matching location. A hint - it is where the Queen spent much of her teenage years!

Did ye see?

Clue 06

Visit the Treasure Trails Facebook page and find an image of a royal residence. The initials of this residence match those of a place on your map that you should now cross off!

Clue 07

The Queen has a huge love for animals, in particular dogs and horses. Her Majesty's first dog was an 18th birthday present - identify the corgi's name and eliminate a matching location.

Did ye know?

The Queen has also introduced a new breed of dog - the 'dorgi'. The first 'dorgi' was a cross between a dachshund (belonging to Princess Margaret) and a royal corgi! Whether it was planned or not - no one knows (or at least no one is saying!)...

Clue 08

Situated opposite the Scottish Parliament identify what the palace of the British monarch in Scotland is commonly referred as. Rearrange the letters to reveal the first names of another location to discount.

Did ye know?
