

The 'Secret Royal' Crossword

This crossword contains the names of some members of the British Royal Family, and the names of some places linked to the monarchy.

The clues for the Royals are in the form of anagrams which you will need to unravel; the answer will either be their title and their first name, ie Prince Edward, or their full title, ie Duchess of Cambridge. Depending on your Royal Family knowledge, the clues for the castles and palaces may require some internet research to find the answer.

When you have solved all of the clues and written the answers in the grid, rearrange the letters in the shaded squares to reveal the title and name of another member of the Royal Family.

Clues

Across:

5. The place where the Queen's 1957 Christmas broadcast took place. It was the first one to be televised live.
6. The palace which is the official residence of the British monarch in Scotland.
7. Re Crash Pencil
8. The name of the house where the Duchess of Cornwall resides.
9. We Laser Foxes
10. I Runs Police

Down:

1. Bug Founder Hiked
2. Which palace did Henry VIII 'steal' from Cardinal Wolsey?
3. Niece Peruses Gin
4. Castle that Queen Victoria and Prince Albert bought for £300,000.

